The humble representation of P. Chandra Sekharaiah minor grandson of the late Polepalli Narasimhaiah setty by his brothers the adoptive mother Annapurnamma and natural father D. Narayana setty residing residing on the avenue Road, Bangalore city, most respectfully sheweth:-

1. That the petitioner's grandfather Narasimhaiah setty and grand uncle Narayana Sami setty resolved during their life time to build the chavram at Siddikatta, in Bangalore, and endow the same with monies to give effect to the worship in the temples attached to the chavram and to the feeding of the Brahmin and Vysya students and other Brahmin travellers.

2. That after the commencement of the building and before its completion the petitioner's grand uncle Narayana Sami chetty died about the middle of the year 1905.

3. That the said Narayana Sami Setty executed two wills the first dated 1st Feb. 1905 and the second 28th May 1905 and got both of them registered.

4. That the said Narayana Sami Setty had no issue either male or female but had a minor grandson by name Venkatasamiah and a minor granddaughter by name Venkatalakshamma born to his only daughter Chandramma who had been married to one Venkatamunishamiah of the Mysore city.

5. That the mother of the minors had unfortunately died at the time Narayanaswami Setty wrote the first will dated 1st Feb. 1905.

6. That the said Narayana Sami Setty wrote in his will intending to give a legacy of Rs 15000/- to his minor grandson Venkatasamiah and a legacy of Rs 5000/- to his granddaughter Venkatalakshamma after the children attained their majority and created ~~Venkata Lakshamma~~ Venkatamunisamiah the father of the minor children to be the trustee of the intended legacies.

7. That the directions in the will

8. That on the 6th of March 1905 jewels of the value of Rs 8135/- and Cash to the extent of Rs 11865/- were handed over by narayanasami Rly himself to the trustee and his signature was taken in the account book for having taken charge of the trust properties under the will, the details whereof are given in the copy of the account book herewith submitted.

Narayanasamayya

9. That ~~narasimhaya~~, died ~~&~~ a few months afterwards. Visvanniti the only son of Narasimhaiah was murdered. Narasimhaya lying prostrated under these bereavements authorised his widowed daughter-in-law Annapurnamma to adopt his own daughter's son and had the present petitioner's adoption effected. Narasimhaiah's wife Puttamma died and Narasimhaiah himself died afterwards in 1912.

10. That the minor grandson of Narayana Samiah by name Venkatramaiah died long before attaining majority leaving the trust property of Rs 15000/- and profits thereof in the hands of the trustee Thunga Venkata Nunishamaiah.

11. That the said trustee Thunga Venkata Nunishamaiah died in the city of Mysore on 31st October leaving the trust property and his own property in an iron chest at his residence

12. That at the time of Venkata Nunishamaiah's death there was with him his second wife by name

Bhavanamma minor aged 4 and his minor daughter Venkatalakshamma. 5

13. That Bhavanamma the second wife of the trustee namely, the deceased Venkatanarasimhaiah, is a daughter of Chenpaiah, a resident of Denkani kote, Salem District
British territories.

14. That in pursuance of the will dated 1st Feb: 1905 the trustee was directed to deliver Rs 15000/- and profits thereof only to the minor Venkataramaiah after he attained his majority and as the trust could not be fulfilled owing to the death of the minor, the property reverted to the petitioner as the heir and successor of the deceased narayanaswamiayya.

15. That the petitioner has his own property and that he has given some of his own property and that he does not wish to take the trust property and use it to his private purposes. ✱

16. That petitioner prays that the Deputy Commissioner of Mysore might be instructed to take charge of the trust properties as no Guardian has been appointed to the seperate property of Venkata Nunisamaiah who has left a minor widow Bhavanamma who could not in the nature of things guard and protect the trust property.

17. That Bhavanamma's father and her brothers have already begun to show signs of usurping the trust and seperate property of the minor widow Bhavanamma.

18. Being residents of British India there will be no hold on them if the property is removed from Mysore.

19. That the petitioner prays that the Govt might be pleased to issue instructions to the Deputy Commissioner of Mysore to take immediate charge of the trust property and to have the same invested with the endowments funds attached to the chatram at Siddikatta and give effect to the good intentions of the deceased ancestors of the petitioner in the perpetuation of the charities
